| Name: | Lisa Rothwell-Young |
| Contact details: will be published in line with what has been specified above | info@lisarothwell-young.co.uk 013873 81180 |
| What medium do you specialise in? | Jewellery |
| What kind of workshops / classes can you offer? | Full and half day group classes Full day 1:1 and 1:2 classes Make your own wedding ring workshops For example on the group classes “make a silver ring”, “make a stone set pendant”. Those attending 1: 1 or 1:2 classes can choose to concentrate on a specific topic such as soldering, etching or stone setting. I can tailor workshops to suit different age groups, for example a workshop that does not involve the use of gas torches or chemicals. |
| What age group do you have experience working with or what kind of groups have you taught previously? | I have worked with a wide range of age groups. For a number of years I was artist in residence at the National Museum of Costume, where I worked with children aged 5+. I have completed a residency in a local High School working with young adults aged 15-18. I was an adult ed tutor for a number of years teaching a variety of jewellery related classes. I have taught jewellery making to people of all ages. |
| Do you have a preferred age group in terms of offering workshops/ classes (i.e primary school, young people, adults etc.) | Jewellery workshops are usually for ages 16+. Children and Young people under the age of 16 will need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian who also takes a place on the workshop. |
| Are you a member of the PVG Scheme? | Not currently. |
| Do you have any other relevant training? | PTLLS teaching qualification (life long learning) |

| | |
|--|---|
| If offering workshops or classes do you have a preferred location? | Workshops are generally available at my own studio, but I am happy to teach at other venues if a suitable space can be found. |
