

Life Long Learning // Beth Currie

Name:	Beth Currie
Contact details. Email:	beth@redsquirrelcrafts.co.uk
What medium do you specialise in?	Micro-crochet jewellery
What kind of workshops / classes can you offer?	I offer beginners and advanced crochet jewellery workshops. Please see here for more information http://redsquirrelcrafts.co.uk/workshop.htm I also do demonstrations/talks where I show all the stages of making one of my pendants, which tend to last about an hour or so.
What age group do you have experience working with or what kind of groups have you taught previously?	I've done demonstrations/talks to a good number of local Womens Rurals, Friendship Clubs, etc. My workshops are aimed at adults and mostly for both workshops and talks I get women aged 30 +
Do you have a preferred age group in terms of offering workshops/ classes (i.e primary school, young people, adults etc.)	Not children! Any adult groups are fine.
Are you a member of the PVG Scheme?	No
Do you have any other relevant training?	No
If offering workshops or classes do you have a preferred location?	Anywhere within a couple of hours drive of Glentroof.

Commissions

I have undertaken many commissions, creating unique pieces of jewellery working from a customer's initial vision. Notable pieces include: a "tree of life" pendant designed to match a school logo; gold stars created to represent the EU flag; a brooch inspired by the logo for the charity "Dementia Friends"; a bespoke thistle bracelet design for a Scottish wedding party overseas.

Workshops

I run workshops for beginners and advanced crocheters, tutoring them in micro-crochet and jewellery making techniques, so that they can create their own crocheted necklace to take home with them.

Galleries & Shops

My work is available to buy at the following places:

Professional Artists Pop Up Shops in Kirkcudbright & Gatehouse of Fleet.

Gallery Sia Tri (my home gallery), Glentrool.
